

How to help a teen with depression

Amy Cheung, MD, MSc

Bell Canada Chair in Adolescent Mood and Anxiety Disorders

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- The majority of adolescents go through at least one significant period of depression.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- The majority of adolescents DO NOT go through at least one significant period of depression.
- HOWEVER, about 1 in 10 will have an episode of clinical depression while in high school.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

What are normal mood swings in teens?

- Happy or sad moods that are not persistent – lasting days to weeks
- Mood swings precipitated by environment
- No drastic changes in behaviour associated with moods:
 - School performance
 - Friendships
 - Involvement in extracurricular activities
 - Irritability/temper outbursts

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Signs and Symptoms of Depression

- Sadness
- Irritability
- Low energy/Fatigue
- Low motivation/interest
- Poor concentration
- Sleep disturbance
- Change in appetite
- Thoughts of death

Signs and Symptoms of Depression

- Sadness
 - Persistent sadness with or without crying
 - Not related to recent stressors such as a breakup
 - Think about: Bullying, Problems with peers, Learning issues, Eating disorder
- Irritability
 - Grumpy with everyone
 - Cannot control
 - Think about: Poor sleep, Poor diet, Family history

Signs and Symptoms of Depression

- Low energy/Fatigue
 - Not due to lack of sleep
 - Other medical causes ruled out
 - Think about: Nutrition/Exercise, Worries/Anxiety
- Low motivation
 - Change in interest
 - Not peer related
 - Ask about: Bullying, Marijuana/Drug use, Learning issues

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Signs and Symptoms of Depression

- Sleep disturbance
 - More than shifted cycle
 - Persistent problem
 - Ask about: Worries/Anxiety, Alcohol use, Sleep disorder
- Thoughts of death
 - Cutting/burning also common
 - Ambivalence very common
 - Think about: Friends, Role models, Family history

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Female adolescents are 2-3 times more likely than males to experience depression.

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Female adolescents are 2-3 times more likely than males to experience depression once they are in adolescence.
- Girls are also 2 to 3 times more likely to have thoughts of suicide or to attempt suicide.
- However, boys are more likely to commit suicide.

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression is a serious, debilitating health condition.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression IS a serious, debilitating health condition.
- Depression is one of the leading causes of disability worldwide.
- 50% of teens who commit suicide had depression.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression related problems with school functioning (poor attendance, poor work completion) can be effectively overcome by stricter discipline and appropriate consequences

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression related problems with school functioning (poor attendance, poor work completion) CANNOT be effectively overcome by stricter discipline and appropriate consequences.
- In fact, it may worsen the illness and slow recovery.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression will usually lift spontaneously in 2-3 months.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Depression WILL NOT usually lift spontaneously in 2-3 months.
- The illness is persistent and may take up to 2 years to lift spontaneously.
- Depression recurs in 60% of teens
- Teens who are not treated will suffer with the illness for an extended period of time.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Getting an adolescent to talk about their depression will tend to reinforce their state of mind.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Getting an adolescent to talk about their depression WILL NOT reinforce their state of mind.
- In fact, talking is one of the most effective treatments for depression – in most cases, it is as effective as medications.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Asking a depressed adolescent about suicidal feelings should be avoided, as bringing up the subject can increase their risk for attempting suicide.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- Asking a depressed adolescent about suicidal feelings SHOULD NOT be avoided, as bringing up the subject CANNOT increase their risk for attempting suicide.
- Similar to depression, talking about suicide is often helpful for teens.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- There is good evidence that formal treatment helps depressed adolescents.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Dispelling the myths about teen moods

- There is good evidence that formal treatment helps depressed adolescents.
- Both talk therapy and medications (or the combination of the two) have been found to be effective treatments for depression in teens.

Sunnybrook
HEALTH SCIENCES CENTRE
when it matters
MOST

Where to get help?

- School mental health workers
- Family Doctor/Pediatrician
- Local Hospital
- Local Children's Mental Health Centres
- Support groups

What treatments are available?

- Antidepressants
 - Class of medication similar to Prozac
 - Known as the SSRI's
 - Improvement occurs in 3 to 5 weeks after treatment
 - Side effects
 - Sleep disturbance
 - Irritability
 - Low energy/Fatigue
 - Thoughts of death (rare)

What treatments are available?

- Talk Therapy
 - Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT)
 - Interpersonal Therapy (IPT)
 - Barriers to therapy
 - Learning issues
 - Time from school/work
 - Motivation

Where to get help?

- Talk Therapy
 - School mental health workers
 - Doctors (hospital or community)
 - Private therapists (not OHIP covered)
 - Children’s mental health centres
- Medications
 - Doctors (hospital or community)
 - Children’s mental health centres

What can teachers do to help?

- Label what you see
- Treat depression like any other medical diagnosis
- Encourage teen to follow through with treatment
- Give accommodations where needed
- Be a supportive adult for your teen

What can parents do to help?

- Label what you see
- Educate yourself
- Treat depression like any other medical diagnosis
- Be an advocate for your teen
- Encourage teen to follow through with treatment
- Get supports

Sunnybrook Innovations

- “No Wrong Door” approach
- Working with patients
- Working with families
- Working with schools
- Working with doctors

Sunnybrook Innovations

- School based clinic
- Helping family doctors and pediatricians to manage depression
 - Guidelines for Adolescent Depression in Primary Care
 - Evaluation of new models for delivering depression care

Resources

- GLAD PC
 - www.gladpc.org
- Mood Disorders Association of Ontario
 - www.mooddorders.on.ca
- E-Mental Health
 - www.ementalhealth.ca

